COOK HISTORY AND GENEALOGY

The purpose of this work is to assemble in a single volume the history and genealogy of The Cook Clan's of North Carolina. It is important to know one's heritage and to know what our ancestors went through in our history. To be able to see how your ancestor fought for our country or accomplished another task that was helpful in building this great nation.

Some of the interesting pieces of information are about the Cooks that fought in the Civil and the Revolutionary War as well as more recent wars. The Battle Hymn of the Cooks, The Coat of Arms for Germany and The Coat of Arms for two different English Clans. A relationship chart is also enclosed to help one determine what relationship one is to another person in the book.

One would think that the project of updating this book would have started at the Cook Reunion two years ago. This is true, partially, this book really started when a curious little kid was up in his parents attic and saw a little book with pictures in it. This is the first encounter with genealogy but not the last. This encounter with this book was my first inclination that I had roots and later I would realize how important they are to me. I have been interested in my roots almost all my life. We were fortunate to have the second edition of the book that preserved countless amounts of information that probably would have been impossible to obtain at this time.

There is no way to properly express the debt we owe the late Rev. Earl A. Cook who was the author of the first and second edition of The Cook History and Genealogy Book.

We have tried to avoid as many mistakes as possible and yet there it is possible that we made some. Some of the names may be spelled incorrectly. Some of the names and dates I had to guess at from the lists I received. Where these errors are found, the author would like to be informed, so that the next edition of this record can be updated in a few years. If you or your family are not in this book it is no fault of the author, because every effort possible has been put forth to contact every Cook family we could. It was not possible to get in touch with all the families that were in the second edition of the Cook History and Genealogy Book. I printed all the information I received. I also enclosed several blanks in the back of this book for you to make additions or corrections to this book.

I would like to thank everyone who has sent in their information and for those who have worked so hard to make this book possible.

EXPLANATION OF THE COOK COAT-OF-ARMS

The Colors of the Escutheon (Shield): Gold, Red and Black.
The Colors of the Crest: Silver and Black.
The Moto: Vincit Labora (Work Wins).

The Colors mean the following: Gold is strength and purity; Red if for courage and a warlike temperment; Black denotes intelligence and mourning, while Silver denotes loyalty.

The lions on guard denotes watchfulness and cautious bravery, while the lion in the Crest symbolizes bravery with strength and fighting ability.

The Cook Coat of Arms is of Crusading origin. The shield was originally the gold shield with the red feese. The two lions in the shield and the one upon the crest were granted after the Cooks returned to England from the Crusade campaign. In this expedition the English were led by King Richard (Richard the Lion Hearted). This grant was made between 1192 and 1200 A. D. The lion upon the crest was the badge of Richard and was adopted by many of his followers to indicate that they had fought with him in the Holy Land. The two lions in the shield indicate the two Cooks who went on the Crusade. The lions are colored black to indicate sorrow at the failure of the Crusade to recapture the Holy City.

The mural (Latin; "wall") coronet represents the walled City of Jerusalem which the Crusaders under Richard stormed, but failed to recapture from the Moslem possessers.

EXPLANATION OF THIS BOOK

There are a few things that one needs to know before you can fully understand all the information that is in this book. Every Family is completed before another one starts. A person's name is listed then who their parents were then after an idention their family is listed. Underlined names are children of the person at the beginning of the paragraph. In some large families the children may be stretched over more than one page. All Children are listed together, after the parents information, but, before their information or their children is given. Page references are given for parents who are not on the same page as their children. When you see () with a last name in it at the end of a list of names this means that all the children in this list have the same last name. () around a date means that the date is in question and may not be accurate. () around a name before the last name means that it is the person's nickname or perferred name. The book is not as complicated as it seems. If you have any trouble understanding please read over the above paragraph. If you still can not understand please write me and I will try to explain it to you.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE COOKS

(Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic)

The Cooks have dwelt in England, Scotland, Ireland and in Wales;
Where English tongue is spoken now the name of Cook prevails.
How could the nations but progress when Good Cook never fails!
The clan goes marching on!

Chorus: Glory to our grand old family,
Virile, worthy, brave and loyal!
Glory, "Tu-tum mon-strat i-ter!"
The clan goes marching on!

The Cooks of York, Northumberland, Nor-folk, Bed-ford and Kent,
To deeds of valor and on missions of import were sent;
And when they pledged their honor everything they said they meant.
The clan goes marching on!

William, Ellis, Gregory, were fathers of our clan;
Posterity of Henry and Elijah never ran.
Mordecai was virile. Nathan' was a sturdy man.
The clan goes marching on!

Sir Samuel was Lord Mayor. Fred' was Chaplain to the Queen;
James Cook discovered islands which white men had never seen.
Cooks love Old Glory, Union Jack and "Wearin' of the Green!"
The clan goes marching on!

The Clan of Cook is mighty with two hundred thousand strong.
In Seventy-Six a thousand kinsmen fought to right a wrong.
Twenty towns now bear our name. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

The sons of Cook have courage any task or foe to face;
Our girls are true and lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The Good Cook leaven is a blessing to the human race!
The clan goes marching on!

"Cook Book" is fascinating! Man could live without his books.
But all the world would starve to death if it were not for Cooks.
We excel at cooking and are not surpassed in looks.
The clan goes marching on!

There's something strong and mighty in a good old family name;
The name of Cook shines very high upon the scroll of fame.
For those who bear the name of Cook pursue a lofty aim.
The clan goes marching on!

EDWARD (NETTY) COOK BRANCH

This Edward (Netty) Cook is as far back as we can prove our immediate Cook family until further research is done. It is believed that Edward Cook was a son of John Cook and Sarah of Orange County who in a deed dated 19 July 1813 names him as one of the heirs along with Archibald, Robert, (David, who was executor of the deed) and James Cook. Other legatees were (Martha and William Baldwin) and (Henry and Hannah King). Hannah King was a daughter of Edward Cook. Edward Cook BORN-22 March 1760. Orange County, N.C. DIED-7 February 1842, in Cleveland County, near Casar, N.C. His grave is marked with a Revolutionary War Stone placed their by the government. This cemetery is between Ben's knob and Sheep's knob on the Old Ham Cook place. Twenty-seven of Edward Cook's family are buried in this cemetery. The present location is on Parker Road-State Road 1546 near Casar, N. C. WIFE-Anne Thomas BORN-22 March 1766. MARRIED-4 February 1785

While living in Orange County, North Carolina, he enlisted in the army in the latter part of 1780, and served thee months as private in Captain Spears' company, Colonel Phillips' North Carolina regiment. Soon after this tour he again entered the service and served three months as a private in Captain Parish's company, Colonel Thomas Farmer's North Carolina regiment, and was in the battle of Eutaw Springs. Shortly after this tour he volunteered and served about two months as a dragoon (a soldier serving both on foot and horseback, armed with short musket) in Captain Williams' troops. The Revolutionary War was usually fought a few months at a time.

After he left the Revolutionary War he continued to reside in Orange County, North Carolina, until 1795, when he moved to Rutherford County. He was known to have one brother, Joe. Joe was known to have two sons, Jesse and Joseph (See page 77). Edward was allowed pension on his application executed 10 September 1832 while a resident of Rutherford County. After his death in 1842, his widow, Anne Cook, was allowed a widow's pension on her application executed 18 July 1845, at which time she resided in Cleveland County. By 1845 the Old Ham Cook place had become part of Cleveland County. Their children are listed on the pages of this book listed beside their name.

BIG JIM COOK BRANCH

CAPTAIN JAMES COOK-(Known as Big Jim) Captain James Cook came from Chatham County to Cleveland County in the early 1800's. He married a daughter of Edward Cook and Anne Thomas Cook. (See page 5 for this family). WIFE-Mary (Polly) Cook. BORN-18 July 1806 He was a very tall man, and was said to be seven feet tall. He is buried at Olive Grove Baptist Church in Cleveland County, near Casar, N.C. His grave was the first in the cemetery. The church was erected after his death. His grave is, perhaps, the cause of the church to be erected there. His grave is marked with a marble slab, but no dates appear on the stone. JOE (JOSEPH) COOK BRANCH

This Joe Cook is believed to have been a brother of Edward Cook (see page 5), and insofar as we know lived and died in Orange County. The date of his birth or death, or the name of his wife is not known. The marriage records of Orange County show that a Joseph Cook, married Franky Dodd on April 10, 1802. We have no proof that this is this Joe (Joseph) Cook, but there is a possibility that it was him. Hopefully someone in the future will be able to confirm this. He was known to have two sons Jesse and Joseph, Jr. These two came to Cleveland County with their families about the year 1834, and settled on the headwaters of Knob Creek in the same county. These families of these two sons are as follows:

This is not a direct branch of the Edward (Netty) Cook Family, as the other branches and lines are. However, it is believed that this branch is of the same ancestory as the Edward (Netty) Cook family. A number of records have been found which indicate that both families had a common origin prior to the Revolutionary War.

RANSON COOK BRANCH

The date of his birth is not known. He came from Chatham county the part of Rowan county that is now Davidson county, about the year 1800. It is not known whom he married. His will is on record in the clerk's office in Davidson county. This will was drawn on October 18, 1831, and was probated the same year, indicating that he died in the latter part of the year 1831. The names of his children given below are taken from the above mentioned will; and some of these children can be accounted for, while others cannot. HENRY COOK, SR. LINE

The best record we have of this line of Henry Cook, who came from Petersburg, Virginia, and settled on a plantation in what is now Alamance County, near Burlington, N. C., about the year 1750. It is interesting to note that a large number of Cooks in North Carolina today can trace their ancestory back to one of several old pioneers who settled in the old Orange County region in that period between 1750 and the Revolutionary War. In some instances these pioneer Cooks have been traced back to Southern Virginia, while in other cases their earlier homes are still unknown. It is quite possible that some of these early Cooks were closely related, as they settle near each other on moving into North Carolina. When their stories are ever uncovered, we will learn that they were only one or two generations from an immigrant Cook who settled first in southern Virginia. The fact that most of these pioneers and their families remained in North Carolina in later years, and also that they and their descendants in most cases had large families, is in great measure responsible for the large number of Cooks in the state today. It is a tribute to the Cook family in general, and a proof of their democracy and homeloving natures to find them living for generation after generation in the same state, and in many instances in the same location.

Being interested in the youth and their discipline and training, he was largely responsible for the establishing of the Jackson Training and Industrial School, located near Concord, N. C. He used his personal influence and his newspaper to bring about this very needed institution, which in 1907 the State of North Carolina Legislature made provisions for as a State reform institution for boys. James P. Cook was appointed by Governor Glenn as a member of the Board of Directors on 3 September 1907, and he was elected chairman of this Board, a position he held for nearly twenty years. In addition to this work in the institution he edited and published the little monthly paper known as The Uplift.

He served as a trustee of the former college known as Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute, was a member of the Lutheran Church, in which he held numerous offices. He followed school work for a few years, then he established at Concord its first daily newspaper, The Daily Standard. He established what was known as the Cold Water Light and Power Company in Concord. He served as County superintendent of schools of Cabarrus County for the ten years from 1886-1896, and served as chairman of the County Board of Education from 1896-1912. In 1813 he served in the State Senate, as well as numerous other placees of responsibility in his county and state. James P. Cook married Margaret Norfleet.

WILLIAM D. COOK LINE

William D. Cook was born in Virginia in the early 1800's. He was one of the South's poineer educators for the visually impaired, hearing impaired, and the blind. At the request of Governor John M. Morehead, he brought a group of handicapped students from Staunton, Virginia, to Raleigh, North Carolina, in the year 1844 for a demonstration of their abilities before members of the State Legislature. A wonderful impression was made upon the entire legislative body, and money was appropriated for the establishing of such a school. Professor William D. Cook was elected as the first principal. He opened the School in Raleigh on May 1, 1845 with seven students. He served as principal until 1860.

R. C. COOK LINE

R. C. Cook, Esquire came to Cabarrus County from England sometime before the Civil War and lived in Concord, N. C., on the spot where the Cabarrus County Court House now stands. He had teams and slaves during the Civil War and hauled freight by wagon train from Charleston, S. C., to Concord, N. C. He hauled the church bell for the first St. James Evangelical Lutheran Church in Concord which was located on East Corbin St., at the place where the Clara Harris School stood, adjoining the old Lutheran Cemetery.

He was married twice. His first wife was Margaret Misenheimer. She was BORN-1816 DIED-1857. They had three sons and five daughters: JAMES-FRANK-WILLIAM E.-(Cook). James and Frank were soldiers in the Civil War. William E. was unable to go to fight in the Civil War because he was handicapped. James was killed on the battlefield and Frank was wounded in the war and died from these wounds sometime in 1871. R. C. Cook's second wife was Katie Townsend. They had four children, all girls: LOU ED-LOMA-ELLA-CHARLIE BELLE-(Cook).

Cook or as he was better known Uncle Billie was one of the pioneer citizens of Concord, N. C. He operated the first bake shop and confectionary store in Concord, assisted by his wife and son, James. He was the first one to sell loaf light bread in Concord. His place of business was first on the spot where the court house now stands and in later years his home and place of business was located at 29-31 S. Union St., the spot where Penders Grocery and Hinson's Auto Economy Store stood, property which he then owned. He later moved to 134 W. Depot where his grandson, Charles Arastus Cook, and wife lived.

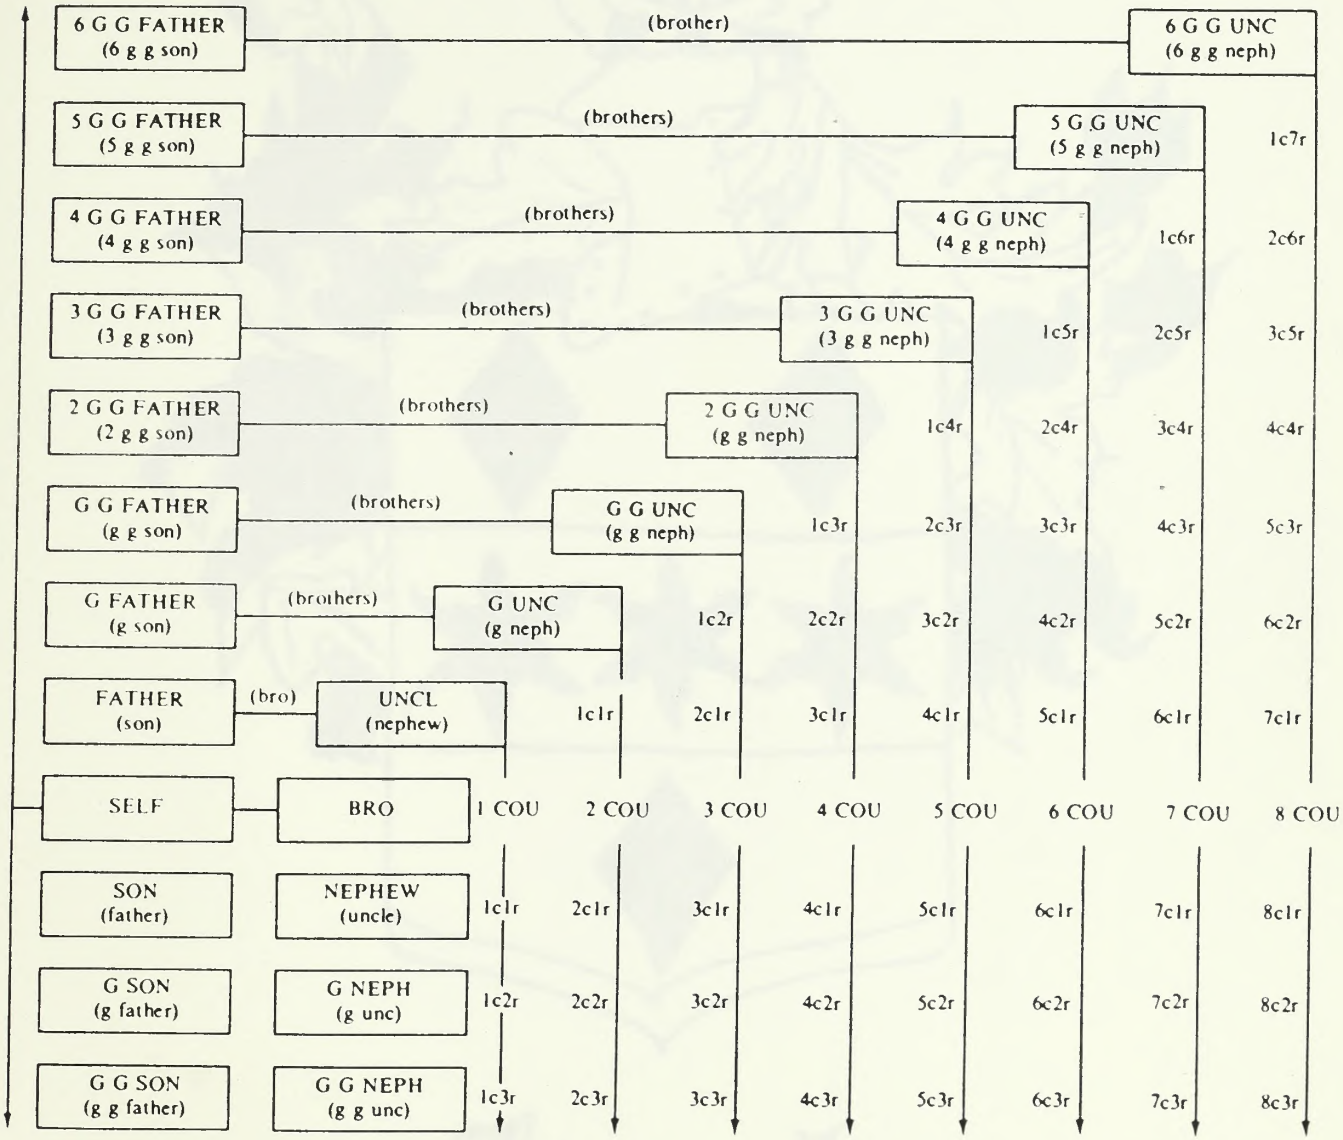
RELATIONSHIP CHART



KEY TO USING THE RELATIONSHIP CHART

1. To determine the relationship of the brothers (or sisters) of direct ancestors, follow the horizontal line from the direct ancestor.

EXAMPLES:

a. The brother of your 6 g g father is is your 6 g g uncle. Your relationship to him is shown in parentheses immediately below the uncle relationship — in this case 6 g g nephew.

b. The sister of your 6 g g father is your 6 g g aunt.

2. To determine your relationship to the children of the brothers (and sisters) of your direct ancestors, follow the vertical line down from the uncle (or aunt) relationship.

EXAMPLE:

a. The son of your 4 g g uncle is your 1c5r.

b. The grandson of your g g uncle is your 2c1r.

ADAM COOK, SR. LINE

This Cook line was traced back to a ship called Duke of Bedford, first from Rotterdam and last from Portsmouth, the following list of passengers by the name Koch now Cook were: Adam Cook, Sr.; Adam Cook, Jr.; Michael Cook, Sr.; and Jon Michael Cook, Jr. Adam Cook's children were believed to be: John Cook, Michael Cook, Sr., Adam Cook, Jr., and Henry Cook.

According to the ship's records they appeared before the Worshipful Mayor of Phildelphia, Pennsylvania., on 14 September 1751, and took the oath of allegience to the Crown of Great Britain and the Province of Pennsylvania. All males over sixteen years of age were obliged to take the oath as soon after their arrival as possible.

These Cooks came from the Rhine Valley of Germany. See German Coat of Arms on page 110. Adam Cook, Jr. is the progenitor of the Cooks in this family. He was married in Pennsylvania and moved with a german settlement to Lincoln County, North Carolina, later moving into Burke County. The name of his wife is unknown.

Adam Cook's will was recorded at Jefferson Courthouse, Ashe County, on 1 December 1816. The will was probated at the August session of Superior Court, Ashe County in the year 1817.

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF COOK(E)

The name of COOKE or COOK is believed to have been derived from the occupation of its first bearer as a cook. It is found in ancient records in the various spellings of Coke, Coca, Cocke, Cuke, Cocus, Cook, and Cooke, of which the two forms last mentioned are those generally used in America today.

Families of this name were resident at early dates in the Counties of Norfolk, York, Cambridge, Bedford, Northumberland, Worcester, Kent, Cornwall, Devon, Essex, Sussex, Lancaster, Hants, Middlesex, Suffolk, Surrey, Oxfordshire, Warwick, and London. They appear to have been, for the most part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry of the British Isles.

Among the earliest records of the family in England are those of Gilbert Cocus or Cook of the time of William the Conqueror; John Cocus of Norfolk and Alexander Cocus of Yorkshire in 1273; Matthew Cocus of Oxfordshire about the same time; Roger le Cook of the year 1300; one Cook Lord Mayor of London in 1462; Sir Anthony Cook of 1543; Edward Cook of Yorkshire in the early sixteenth century; Symon Cook of North Hants (who was married in 1553 to Cecilia Ridge and had issue by her of Robert, John, Geoffrey, Thomas, William, and several daughters, of whom the eldest son Robert was the father of a son named Francis and the second son John was the father of Symon and John); John Cook of Norfolk County in the sixteenth century (who was the father of Thomas of Worcester, who married Mary Picard and had issue by her of Thomas, Edmund, Richard, and others); and the brothers, Sir Henry and Sir George Cook, of Yorkshire in the early seventeenth century, sons of one Bryan Cook of that county.

The first of the name to emigrate to America was Francis Cook, who came from Holland (whither he had gone from Yorkshire, England, with the Pilgrims) to Plymouth, Mass., on the Mayflower in 1620. He brought with him his eldest son John and was followed a few years later by his wife Hester or Esther and their other children, Jacob, Jane, and Esther. He also had another daughter in New England named Mary.

One John Cook (not the son of Francis) resided at Plymouth in 1633 and later removed to Rehoboth and finally to Warwick. He was the father by his wife Mary of John, Elizabeth, and possibly others.

In 1635 two brothers, Joseph and George Cook, came from Essex, England, to Cambridge, Mass. Joseph was the father by his wife Elizabeth of Elizabeth, Mary, Grace (died young), Grace, and Ruth. The younger brother, George, was the father by his wife Alice of Elizabeth (died young), Thomas, Joseph, Elizabeth, and Mary. It is thought probable that both of these men died in England.

Aaron Cook was living at Dorchester, Mass., in 1635 and is believed by some historians to have been resident there at a still earlier date. He later removed to Windsor, Conn., and married Johanna Ford, by whom he was the father of Joanna, Aaron, Miriam, and Moses. He later removed to Northampton, where he married Joan Denslow, by whom he had issue of Samuel, Elizabeth, and Noah. By his third wife, the Widow Rebecca (nee Foot) Smith, he had no further issue.

Josiah Cook emigrated to Plymouth sometime before 1635. In that year he married the Widow Elizabeth (nee King) Deane, by whom he was the father of Josiah, Ann, Bethia, and possibly others as well.

About 1635 Richard Cook emigrated to Boston, Mass., from Gloucestershire, England. He had issue by his wife Elizabeth of Elhannan, Elisha, Elkanah, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Henry Cook of Salem in 1638 was married in the following year to Judith Burdsall. Their children were Isaac, Samuel, John, Judith, Rachel, Mary, Martha, Henry, and Hannah.

One Ellis Cook came from Southampton, England, to Lynn, Mass., about 1640 and removed shortly afterward to Southampton, L. I. He had issue by his wife Martha of John, Martha, Ellis, Mary, and Elizabeth.

One Walter Cook was residing at Weymouth prior to the year 1643. He was the father of Ebenezer, Walter, Nicholas, and probably others.

The brothers, Stephen and Gregory Cook, emigrated to America about 1647 and resided at various times at Cambridge, Mendon, and Watertown. The records of Stephen are not complete but Gregory was the father by his wife Mary of Stephen, Susanna, and probably others. He also had a second wife, the Widow Susanna Goodwin, but no further issue by this marriage.

In the year 1647 Philip Cook was living at Cambridge, Mass. It is believed that he had issue by his wife, Mary Lamson, of Mary, Philip, Samuel, Hannah, Sarah, John, and Barnabas.

One Nathaniel Cook, who was married at Windsor, Conn., in 1649 to Lydia Vore, is believed by some family historians to have been a son of the immigrant Francis by an earlier marriage than that which is referred to above. It is believed that Nathaniel was born in England, but this is not certain. His children were Sarah, Lydia, Hannah, Nathaniel, Abigail, John, and Josiah.

Mordecai Cook, who settled at Gloucester, Mass., about 1650 or before, is believed to have been the father of seven children, Mordecai, Thomas, Giles, John, Mary, Francis, and Susannah.

In 1655 another John Cook made his home at Portsmouth, R. I. He was the father by his wife Ruth of John, Joseph, Thomas, and several daughters.

One Samuel Cook of New Haven, Conn., was married in 1667 to Hope Parker. Their children were Samuel, John, Mary, Judith, Isaac, Joseph, Hope, Israel, Mabel, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Elizabeth.

Robert Cook of Portsmouth, R. I., who may have been related to the before-mentioned John of that place, was married in 1678 to Tamar Tyler. They were the parents of Mary, Miriam, and Samuel.

Among others of the name who emigrated to America at early dates but left few records of themselves and their families were John, *Edward, and William of Virginia about 1623; John of Salem in 1635, who had only female issue; Peyton of Saco, Me., in 1635; John, Richard, William, and Garrett of Virginia in 1635; Richard of Charlestown in 1639; Thomas of Taunton in 1639, who had a son of the same name; Ralph of Charlestown in 1640; Samuel of Dedham in 1640; Robert of Charlestown in 1641, who had a son named Samuel; John of Boston in 1643; Roger of Marshfield in 1643; Thomas of Watertown before 1647; Thomas of Salem in 1650; Isaac of Salem in 1664, who had a son of the same name; William of Maine in 1665; Thomas of Guilford in 1668, who had a son named Thomas; Samson of Gloucester in 1674; John of Hadley in 1675, who had a son named John; Joseph of Wells in 1680; Richard of Norwhich in 1680, who had a son named Obed; Thomas of Windsor in 1683, who had several daughters; Caleb of Watertown in 1685, who had a son of the same name;

John of Hampton in 1686; Thomas of Braintree in 1689; James of Boston in 1690; John of Middletown, who died in 1705, leaving at least five children, John, Mary, Daniel, Sarah, and Ebenezer; and Peter of Pennsylvania in 1712, who had a son of the same name and probably others as well.

The record of the Cooks in America is that of an intelligent, conscientious, and progressive race, possessed of generosity, kindliness, and sociability. Other characteristics which have contributed to their successes in almost all fields of endeavor include self-reliance, initiatve, and perseverance.

WAR OFFICERS.

Among those of the name who served as officers in the War of the Revolution were Captains David and Phineas, of Massachusetts; Colonel Ellis, of New Jersey; Captains Isham Cook, Rains Cook, and Paris Cook, of Georgia; Lieutenant Colonel Isaac, Jr., of Connecticut; Captains James and Richard, of North Carolina; Major John, of New Jersey; Captain John, of Virginia; Captain Louis, of New Hampshire; Major Simeon, of New York; Major Thaddeus, of Connecticut; Colonel John, of Rhode Island; Colonel Joseph, of Connecticut; and Colonel William, of Pennsylvania.

John, Thomas, Henry, Joseph, Samuel, Robert, William, Aaron, James, David and Jesse are some of the male Christian names most frequently found in annals of the Cook family.

OUTSTANDING IN THE FAMILY NAME

A few of the members of the family who have attained distinction in America in more recent times are:

Albert John Cook (1842-1916), of Michigan, naturalist.

Albert Stanburrough Cook (1853-1927), of New Jersey, scholar.

Francis Augustus Cook (1843-1916), of Massachusetts, naval officer.

Walter Cook (1846-1916), of New York, architect.

William Wilson Cook (1858-1930), of Michigan, lawyer.

George Willis Cook (1848-1923), of Michigan, Unitarian clergyman and author.

George Crouse Cook (b. 1875), of New York, financial executive.

Harold James Cook (b. 1887), of Wyoming and Nebraska, paleontologist and geologist.

Melville Thurston Cook (b. 1869), of Illinois, botanist.

Phillip Cook (b.1875), of Missouri and Delaware, Protestant Episcopal bishop.

Edmund Francis Cook (b. 1885), of Arizona and New York, lawyer and congressman.

Morris Llewellyn Cook (b. 1872), of Pennsylvania, consulting engineer in managment.

Earl A. Cook (b. 1904), of North Carolina, Methodist minister and author.

Arthur Wayland Cook (1876-1940) Greensboro, N. C., lawyer and orator.

COOKS OF NORTH CAROLINA WHO SERVED IN THE CIVIL WAR

These names were taken from the official roster of the North Carolina troops in the War Between the States. Copied by Earl A. Cook.

The official roster is not complete, many names do not appear in the list, therefore, this list is not a complete one. There is a possibility that you will find one person listed more than one time. Many were transferred from one company to another, from one regiment to another without an accurate account. Many were discharged because of disability, later enlisted again. The counties named here are the counties in which the person enlisted and not necessarily the county from which they came, however, this is the list as near as it can be given:

*—Officers

John Cook—1st Regiment, Company D. Enlisted July 22, 1861, in Halifax County.

William Cook—3rd Regiment, Company D. Enlisted May 27, 1861, in New Hanover County. Was transferred to C. S. Navy.

Robert B. Cook—4th Regiment, Company C. Enlisted June 7, 1861, in Iredell County.

James Cook—4th Regiment, Company G. Enlisted March 16, 1862, in Davie County.

R. B. Cook—4th Regiment, Company H. Enlisted June 26, 1861, in Iredell County.

R. T. Cook—4th Regiment, Company H. Enlisted March 1, 1862, in Iredell County.

Levi H. Cook—5th Regiment, Company A. Enlisted July 16, 1862, in Chatham County. Wounded at Gettysburg.

Henry C. Cook—5th Regiment, Company A. Enlisted July 15, 1862, in Chatham County.
